The annual meeting of the Southern Economic Association will be held in Houston, TX at the Marriot Marquis Houston, on November 20-22, 2021 (Saturday to Monday). The KAEA plans to organize three sessions at the SEA conference. Theoretical and empirical papers on all aspects of economics are welcome.

You may submit a manuscript or an extended abstract, including JEL codes and your membership status with the KAEA, by e-mail to the KAEA session organizer, Suyong Song at suyong-song@uiowa.edu no later than March 19th (Friday). Preference will be given to full paper submissions. Acceptance will be notified by March 26th.

If your paper is accepted, you should submit the final version of your paper by October 29th for review by other participants. Submissions from young scholars (junior faculty and Ph.D. students) are strongly encouraged. Submission fees ($35) will be waived as a part of KAEA sessions. However, all participants will be required to register for the conference and responsible for their own expenses.

For general questions about the conference, please go to the SEA conference website www.southerneconomic.org.

Visit the KAEA website (www.KAEA.org) for other announcements.
