Call for Papers

The 97th Annual Conference of the Western Economic Association International (WEAI) will be held on June 29th – July 3rd, 2022 at Hilton Portland Downtown and The Duniway, Portland, Oregon. The Korea-America Economic Association (KAEA) plans to organize two or three sessions at the WEAI conference. We sincerely invite the members of the KAEA or the KEA to join in this wonderful event. Both in-person and virtual options will be considered. Therefore, we request you to provide your modality preference when you submit your paper.

Theoretical and empirical papers on all aspects of economics are welcome. Please submit a manuscript or an extended abstract to Vice President J.B. Kim (jb.kim@okstate.edu) by e-mail including

- (i) JEL code(s) and (ii) 3-5 key words
- (ii) Your preference including (1) In-person; (2) Virtual; (3) In-person or Virtual
- (iii) Your membership status with the KAEA or the KEA

Submission deadline is January 31 (Monday), 2022. If accepted, your final version manuscript is due June 1, 2022.

There is no submission fee for members of the KAEA or the KEA. In addition, the session participants can register at the WEAI member's rate regardless of their membership status with the WEAI. However, all participants will be required to register for the conference and responsible for their own expenses.

Submitted papers will be blind-reviewed by the referees. All presenters are strongly urged to serve as discussants (or session chairs, if requested) for the WEAI-KAEA sessions.

Further information about the conference can be found at the WEAI website at <http://www.weai.org> or the KAEA homepage at <http://www.kaea.org>.
